Activity Report -2023-24

Shri Swami Samarth Seva Sansthan Trust, Akkalkot, is dedicated to serving humanity through various social, spiritual, and charitable activities. Our ashram operates with the core values of devotion, service, and compassion, ensuring that every individual, regardless of background, receives care and support. The following report highlights the activities carried out by our trust.

1. Running an Old Age Home

Our trust operates an old age home that provides shelter, food, medical care, and emotional support to elderly individuals. Currently, we care for several senior citizens who have no family support. Our services include:

- Accommodation & Comfort: We ensure a peaceful and clean environment for the elderly, offering them a homely atmosphere.
- Nutritious Meals: Daily meals, including breakfast, lunch, evening tea, and dinner, are prepared with hygiene and care.
- Medical Assistance: Regular health check-ups, medication, and emergency medical support are provided to all residents.
- Social Engagement: We encourage social interactions through storytelling sessions, devotional programs, and cultural activities.
- Spiritual Well-being: Daily prayers and bhajans create a positive atmosphere, giving the elderly mental peace and strength.

2. Daily Cow Care Service (Gau Seva)

The trust takes care of 20 cows, ensuring they are well-fed, healthy, and safe. Cow service is an integral part of our activities, as it holds spiritual and environmental significance. Our cow care services include:

- Morning & Evening Feeding: Cows are provided with fresh fodder, water, and nutritious supplements to maintain their health.
- Shelter & Hygiene: The cows are kept in a clean and spacious environment, with regular cleaning and maintenance of the cow shed.
- Medical Care: Veterinary check-ups and treatments are conducted to ensure the well-being of the cows.
- Devotee Participation: Many devotees actively participate in Gau Seva, considering it a sacred duty.
- Cow Protection & Expansion: We strive to rescue and shelter more cows in need of care and protection.

Activity of Shri Swami Seva Sansthan

1. Worship of God Shri Swami Samarth Every Day

Daily worship of Shri Swami Samarth is the soul of our ashram. Every morning and evening, devotees gather to offer prayers, chant bhajans, and seek the divine blessings of Shri Swami Samarth. The rituals include Abhishek, Aarti, and recitation of Swami Charitra, creating a peaceful and spiritual environment for all visitors.

2. Morning Tea & Breakfast

The ashram ensures that all residents and visitors begin their day with a nourishing breakfast. Tea and snacks are served early in the morning, providing energy and warmth to those residing in and visiting the ashram. Special arrangements are made for elderly devotees to ensure their comfort.

3. Afternoon Lunch

A wholesome and nutritious lunch is prepared daily for all residents, including elderly individuals, devotees, and visitors. The meal consists of traditional Indian food, ensuring a balanced diet. The prasada bhojan is prepared with devotion, maintaining cleanliness and hygiene at all times.

4. Tea in the Evening

In the evening, tea is served to refresh and energize the residents. This gathering also serves as a time for social interaction and sharing experiences, fostering a sense of community among all.

5. Dinner at Night

Dinner is provided to all residents and visitors who seek blessings and stay at the ashram. The meal is simple yet nourishing, ensuring that every individual gets the necessary sustenance before retiring for the night. Special meals are prepared during religious festivals and events.

6. Morning Cow Service

As part of our commitment to preserving and protecting cows, our ashram conducts a morning cow service. The cows in our care are fed with fresh fodder and water, ensuring their well-being. Devotees actively participate in this sacred activity, believing it to be a service to God.

7. Evening Cow Service

In the evening, the cows are attended to once again, ensuring they are healthy and comfortable. This service aligns with our spiritual beliefs, emphasizing the significance of cow protection in Hindu culture.

8. Food Donation Distribution Service Every Thursday

Every Thursday, the ashram conducts a food donation drive, providing free meals to the underprivileged and needy individuals. This initiative reflects our commitment to eliminating hunger and serving society selflessly. Devotees contribute to this service by offering food grains, vegetables, and financial assistance.

9. Distribution of Ladu Mahaprasad Twice a Year

On the auspicious occasions of Shri Datta Jayanti and Shri Swami Samarth Punyatithi, we distribute Ladu Mahaprasad to all devotees visiting the ashram. Thousands of devotees participate in these grand celebrations, receiving divine blessings along with the sacred Mahaprasad.

10. Women's Day Program

Empowering women is one of our trust's objectives. Every year on Women's Day, we organize programs to honor and support women in society. These programs include motivational speeches, cultural performances, and the distribution of essential items to underprivileged women. The event is aimed at encouraging women's empowerment and self-reliance.

11. Old People Visit outside Devotees

Our ashram arranges visits for elderly residents to meet outside devotees. This initiative helps them stay connected with society, fostering emotional well-being and happiness. Such visits are essential for their mental and spiritual health, allowing them to share wisdom and experiences with the broader community.

12. Annual Ration Dhanya Distribution of Devotees

As part of our social responsibility, we distribute annual ration supplies to devotees, especially those in need. This initiative ensures that families have adequate food supplies, reducing financial burdens on the underprivileged. This activity is conducted with devotion and generosity, making a meaningful impact on numerous lives.
